RULES

PRE-READING

Directions: Answer the following questions to the best of your ability. Make sure you use complete sentences and check for punctuation and spelling.

1. What expectations do you have from the book cover?

2. When you hear the word "rules", how do you feel and what comes to your mind?

3. Are rules necessary in some situations? What good purposes do they serve? When can rules be negative things?

4. Name some rules in your own life. What rules do your parents have for you? Are there rules in your classrooms or library?

5. Do you have some rules for yourself? If so, tell us about some of them. If no, what are a few that you might want to make for yourself?

6. If you could create a set of rules for your sibling, what would those rules be? Some examples might be related to borrowing your things or how to act when you have a friend visiting. Come up with at least five. If you do not have a brother or sister, come up with five rules for a cousin or your parents.
